MAYER'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, Feb. 27, 1860.

The following ordinance, passed by the Common Council and approved by the Mayor, 24d of February, will give right enforcement to the laws of the streets of New York, for the purpose of meliorating the condition of the city, and the Mayoralty and Common Council convened.

SECTION 1. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to be in the streets or alleys of the City of New York, for the purpose of any sweep or low that may have accumulated or been deposited in any such avenue, street, lane, alley, highway, or public place in said city, except such streets as are avenues, or portions thereof, as are treated as such, or the city streets, which are hereby permitted to remain, and which are subject to sweep or low, unless they are swept and one foot outward of their sides, under a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars for each and every offense, and for each day during the continuance of the same.

SEC. 2. The Mayor and the Commissioners of Police are hereby specially directed to cause the provisions of Section 1 of this ordinance to be strictly enforced, and to cause all violations thereof to be immediately extirpated to the Attorney to the Corporation for prosecution. (Signed) MICHAEL TUOMEY, Mayor.
